DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. Claims 1-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Greenwell et al as discussed in paragraph of the last office action.
2. Applicant's arguments filed 5/9/2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. In response to applicants arguments regarding the 102 rejection, examiner maintains that Greenwell et al show the limitation of feed means for feeding the packaging material from a direction substantially perpendicular to the direction of travel of the articles". The direction of travel for the articles is horizontal while the packaging material is fed vertically which reads on the claimed subject matter. The claims do not recite what applicant contends, such as, "from a direction substantially perpendicular" does not recite that this refers to the direction of travel of the packaging material upstream from the feed means. Examiner is interpreting the claims in a broad context.

In response to applicants arguments regarding the possible 103 rejection, examiner made a 102 or in the alternative 103 rejection. The 103 rejection was not set forth as examiner believes a 102 rejection is proper and in the alternative a 103 rejection. A 103 rejection was based upon claim 13 which was not challenged by applicant. Therefore, this is taken to be admitted prior art since applicant did not traverse examiner's assertion of official notice MPEP 2144.03.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
